Muharram is the first month of the Islamic lunar calendar. It is one of the four sanctified months in the Islamic calendar. Some Muslim choose to fast during this month, although fasting is not obligatory. Many Muslims engage in voluntary prayer, including evening prayer, during Muharram.

The Day of Ashura (or Ashurah), which is the 10th day of Muharram, is known as the most sacred day in the month of Muharram. Our prophet (peace be upon him) fasted it and directed the Muslims to fast it. (Abu Dawood).
